

CONGRESS HANDS-ON COURSE - SPCMIN Congress 2019
Image Guided and Percutaneous Procedures

(19.10.2019 – Saturday - Afternoon)

Dra. Teresa Dias – IPOPorto-FG, Porto

Dr. Belarmino Gonçalves – IPOPorto-FG, Porto

Dr. Ricardo Leão – Hospital de Braga, Braga

Dr. Rui Loureiro – Hospital Beatriz Ângelo, Loures

US-guided venous access for Ports and PICCs implantations (TDias)

1. How to puncture a vein with US-guidance
2. Overview and how to choose the best mid to long-term central catheter for your patient
3. Proper implantation technique using different medical devices

US-guided Thermal Ablation (BGonçalves)

1. How to approach the target lesion
2. How to achieve an A0 margin and avoid a major resection
3. How to select the best ablation device: RF or MW?

US-guided kidney access for urologic procedures (RLeão)

1. How to puncture under US-guidance to access the calyceal system
2. How to perform a percutaneous nephrostomy
3. Tips and tricks to avoid complications
4. Overview of different medical devices for other antegrade access kidney procedures (ureteral stenting, nephrolithotomy)

Mini-laparoscopic access for biliary procedures (RLoureiro)

1. Overview of different medical devices available

12

SPCMI
CONGRESS

18-19
OCTOBER '19

VILA GALÉ COIMBRA HOTEL

2. How to perform an endoscopic biliary access
3. Tips and tricks to avoid complications
4. Current review of adjuvant techniques regarding this approach (bile ducts, pancreas, etc)